

Our story

CS Recycling has been a recycling management firm since 1937. We have seen the industry grow, and with it, consumer responsibility.

Our vision

A sustainable environment for current and future generations through supplying the circular economy with quality materials.

Our mission

Sourcing quality materials from commercial businesses within South East England, working on achieving recycling targets.

Our values

